

THE STORY OF A CRIME.

The Queer Revelation of a Villainous Conspiracy.

A Negro Being Caught In a Cowardly Deed Makes a Strange Revelation—An Innocent Man Is Punished.

WARRENTON, Ga., March 19.—Several nights ago, in Lincoln County, the house of a respectable citizen was entered by a burly negro who attempted to assault a lady. Wrenching herself from his grasp, she snatched up her babe and escaped in the darkness through half a mile of swamp to the house of a neighbor. The wife had not more than gone away, when the husband, with a neighbor, entered the front door to see a negro make his exit through the rear. They overtook him, when a fearful struggle took place. Finally the men bound the negro and took him to Lincoln jail where he was recognized as the notorious Jack Henderson, who is popularly credited with many crimes. A movement to lynch Henderson was organized, in which blacks as well as whites were concerned. Sheriff Bruce Long organized a posse and moved the prisoner to Wilkes County. Prominent among those who advocated lynching was George P. Murphy. As soon as that became known to Henderson, he confessed to a conspiracy which explains a case of arson which was a sensation two years ago. For this crime Mr. Blanchard, one of the best citizens of the county, was arraigned on the testimony of Jack Henderson, George P. Murphy, and J. N. Tarver, a white man. So high was Blanchard's standing that the people still had confidence in his innocence. Now Henderson confesses that the whole thing was a conspiracy. Warrants were at once issued for Tarver and Murphy on the charge of perjury.

SHE CHANGED HER MIND.

A Young Wife Almost Persuaded to Face the Footlights.

St. Louis, March 19.—Saturday night the list of mysterious disappearances kept by the police was enlarged by a report of the disappearance of Mrs. Long, wife of J. M. Long, of the firm of Long & Krause, doing business at 221 Chestnut street. They boarded at 1208 Washington avenue. Mrs. Long left home Saturday afternoon to visit a Miss May Greenleaf, a figure in Lottie Beaumont's Female Minstrel Company, which disbanded here several weeks ago. Miss Greenleaf boarded at the Atlantic Hotel, and Mrs. Long called and staid until 4 o'clock, when she left, saying she would meet Mrs. G. at the depot that night, to bid her good-bye, as the figure was going to Chicago to take a variety engagement. Mr. Long became anxious about his wife late in the evening, and inquired at the Atlantic, but could not find her. Yesterday afternoon he received a letter from her, written Saturday afternoon, in which she said she was going to visit her mother in Chippewa Falls, Wis. Shortly after the receipt of the letter the lady was found and returned to her home. She had been stage-struck, and intended to seek an advent to the profession with Miss Greenleaf, but soon learned she had made a mistake.

TERRORS OF TRICHINOSIS.

A Whole Family Falls Victims to the Awful Disease.

LATROBE, Pa., March 19.—A strange case of poisoning was developed near the Loyal Hanna shaft. A family named Shulteis, consisting of husband, wife and two brothers, during the flood suffered severely from trichinosis. They secured some fresh pork, of which they ate greedily without cooking. A few days passed, when they were taken ill, and symptoms of trichinosis set in. The woman, Mrs. Maria Shulteis, died and was buried yesterday. The husband is hourly expected to die. Her two brothers are gradually getting worse, with the probabilities of a fatal result.

Osman Declares a "Holy War."

BUKAM, March 19.—Osman Digna is exhorting the natives to join in the "holy war" now waged against the British. He has 2,000 followers, and is daily receiving fresh accessions to his forces. He has sent 150 scouts to watch the movements of Graham, with orders to kill all stragglers found. The sheiks of the various tribes condemn Admiral Hewitt's offer of a reward of £1,000 for the head of Osman Digna, and scorn Graham's friendly overtures.

Portrait of George Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—A curiosity of art has recently been received here from Salem, N. C. It is one of the eight original portraits of George Washington by Gilbert Stuart. There are letters of identification accompanying it by Sully, the artist, and other Philadelphians. It is in a good state of preservation. The portrait came through the Welfare family, from Philadelphia in 1829.
